

Finance Leadership Development Program

The Finance Leadership Development Program is a dynamic and challenging three year program comprised of three, 12-month rotations spread across the OneFinance organization. Selected participants will rotate throughout numerous departments and business segments, with the goal of the program being to gain a breadth of experiences over the three years. The program provides participants with the skills and tools needed to be successful by offering abundant resources to continue learning from demonstrated experts and develop into future leaders.

What are the opportunities at LYB?

LYB's Rotational Program offers carefully selected positions across a wide range of finance and strategy teams.
